

Arman Emdad Eltyam Medical Bandages:

produced using a variety of natural and synthetic yarns with the highest quality and under international standards.

It is produced with modern machine with advanced technology. The use of special and elastic yarns using the highest level of technology has led to the production of a medical bandage that offer tremendous benefitd.

It penetrates moisture and air and makes skin breathing possible.

It is especially used for protective purposes that can be applied to the injured limb without slipping on the skin and in cases of fixation, compression, rehabilitation and work injuries.

It is sterilized and washed and it is resistant to the absorption of oitments, oils,...

In various widths of 5, 7.5, 10, 15, 20 cm and with a length of 460 meters and the possibility of production in different lengths according to customer needs.

